Feeling frazzled? We live in challenging times. A time when we are asked to show up in more ways than ever before and perhaps without information or fewer resources. The sun reminds us of life and the light within each of us that nurtures that life. Please join as we move our bodies and soothe our minds to the backdrop of the setting sun. For the safety of everyone, we are not able to provide mats at this time. Option to bring your own mat or blanket, or practice on the grass. Physical distancing will be required at all times for everyone's wellbeing. All levels welcome.
